

Biography – David Lobenberg

David Lobenberg's high level of excellence in figurative/ landscape watercolor and acrylic painting is well recognized by artists and collectors nationwide. David Lobenberg is a teacher and fine artist specializing and exhibiting in the mediums of watercolor and acrylic. His works and techniques have been published in the following national and international periodicals: The Art of Watercolour, Southwest Art, Artist's Magazine, Art Collector, Plein Air Magazine, The Palette Magazine, and Pratique De Arts. His works have been exhibited in the United States, France, Southeast Asia, and Turkey. David has been teaching art workshops for over thirty years in California and out-of-state. His teaching style can be summed up with the following words: exuberant, fun, engaging, and encouraging. Recent workshop venues include Art In The Mountains (Oregon), Peninsular Art League (Washington), Sierra Watercolor Society (Nevada), Utah Watercolor Society in Salt Lake City and Saint George, California Watercolor Association, The Santa Clara Valley Watercolor Association (California), Society of Western Artists (California), and the Crocker Art Museum (Sacramento, California).

He has completed commissioned works for:

The United States Air Force,
Thunderbirds Alumni Association,
the Amgen Tour Of California,
The Sacramento Kings and River Cats,
Major league baseball players Barry Zito and Nick Swisher, IMAX Corporation, and SureWest Corporation, to name a few.